DBE PROGRAM BACKGROUND

The Alaska Unified Certification Program (AUCP), which is mandated by the US Department of Transportation and administered by the Alaska Department of Transportation and Public Facilities (ADOT&PF) Civil Rights Office (CRO), is your "one-stop" certification process which provides you an opportunity to participate as a Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) on projects funded by the Federal Highway Administration (FHWA), Federal Aviation Administration (FAA), and Federal Transit Administration (FTA) and with numerous agencies throughout the State of Alaska.

DBE PROGRAM GOALS

The DBE goals of the DBE Program are to provide assistance to minorities, woman and other socially and economically disadvantaged individuals, to be able to compete fairly for federally funded transportation related projects and ensure a "level playing fields" .

DBE CERTIFICATION ELIGIBILITY

THE FOLLOWING SUMMARIZES KEY INFORMATION BUT DOES NOT COVER ALL REQUIREMENTS:

- Is your firm at least 51% owned by a socially and economically disadvantaged individual (s) who also control the firm?
- Is the owner a U.S. citizen or lawfully admitted permanent resident of the U.S?
- Is your firm a small business that does not exceed the Small Business Administration size standard?
- Is your firm an organized "for profit" business?
